

 Facts of Pertaining Circumstances:

* During tenure of my NYPD Career, While in Performance of Police Duties over decades, I Personally Experienced and Witnessed many 100s of Horrific Police Emergency Incidents. Including The Day and months assignments aftermath 9-11-2001 World Trade Center Terrorist Attacks in NYC.

While personally unaware not-realizing nor understood how decades of Repressed & Suppressed PTSD adversely affected my personal well being and perceptions.

* 2005, I Retired Decorated & Honorably from NYPD with Decades of Job related Repressed & Suppressed Post Traumatic Stress Disorder;(PTSD); Although all was self assumed well managed. All I wanted to do after NYPD retirement was to take a year off to Relax in my own backyard. And to further build my new retirement life and Professional Photography Career.

 During day of April 10, 2006, Due to Several Consecutive Never-Anticipated Actually Occurring Mitigating and Escalating Circumstances. Did influenced Symptomatic degrees PTSD to surfaced in influencing Assessments by Perceptions upon judgments to Actually Occurring Events of The Time to Reacted upon.

 During that day, I infact suffered severely deep Post Traumatic Shock, Since initial moments of occurrence. While Mentally unable to accept nor process all that transpired. All from initially nothing else in mind during that day. Other than to made a quick trip to a local store a few miles from my residential area & back home again. I went into even Deeper Post Traumatic Shock due to all happened.

 While still within Deep Post Traumatic Shock, During interim held in detention awaiting trial. I was Misdiagnosed Psychiatrically and Wrongly Medicated. Which further rendered me Unable to comprehend any matters lucidly. Complicated by Wrong Medications, No one had taken awareness to consider the Serious Degrees of longterm Post Traumatic Shock that I was within;

* Prognostic Dispositions by Mental Health Staff and My Attorneys of the time;

- Were That I was affected by PTSD infact became Mentally Imbalanced during Time of Incident.
- As result, I did receive Extensive Medical and Psychiatric Treatments twice daily for many years.
- By all pertaining matters, It has taken me many years of Counseling to fully recovered.

* I never anticipated nor imagined any this possible by my symptomatic PTSD Of The Time that was always self assumed well managed, could eventually had me making misconceptions/misjudgment to actions that adversely affected not only mine but the lives of others.

 In Considerations due to circumstances of the time were Not-intentional.

 I ask Yours & Everyone's best possible compassionate understandings, That in Life, Even The Finest Best of Citizens does make mistakes. That any matters of things can suddenly happen within each our daily life moments. Can of itself due to our life experiences influenced anyone to have misconceptions upon misjudgments to happen and react instinctively. Especially when Entrained by Professional Police training and Ingrained Traumatic Job related Experiences. During the time my perceptions by Continually Escalating Circumstances did assessed all happening were Real Threat to My Life & Safety.

* That Regardless of whatever anyone may assumed without full knowledge of Past pertaining circumstances;

- I have suffered Intensely Deep Sorrows & Remorses beyond a decade for all my misjudgments & wrongs;
- I Shall Forever the rest of my life continue to Regret My Mistakes & Wrongs in Sincere Remorsefulness;
- Therefore, Totally NOT-true as News Media propogandas denigratively alleged not having Sorrows & Remorses.

* I am Sincerely Sorry for all my past wrongs. Since restored religion furthered myself Spiritually in all Good Positive ways. Became a Religiously Spiritual man, Learned lots further Changed & Improved from all past mistakes. *Including Earned a Doctorate Of Divinity Degree during the interim of incarceration.